

Building Pyramids in Egypt

Your next stop will take you to the incredible land of Egypt. You'll see incredible landmarks such as pyramids, tombs, and temples. You also learn about hieroglyphs and the Israelites.

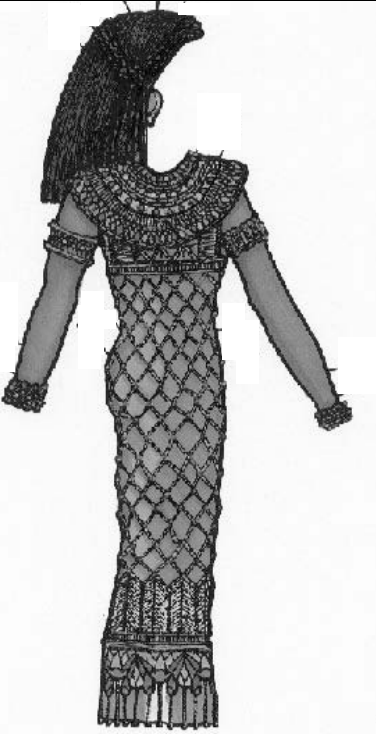

Your tasks in Egypt:

Draw a picture of a temple or monument you see in the land of Egypt.

Paste
Parchment Egypt Map
here

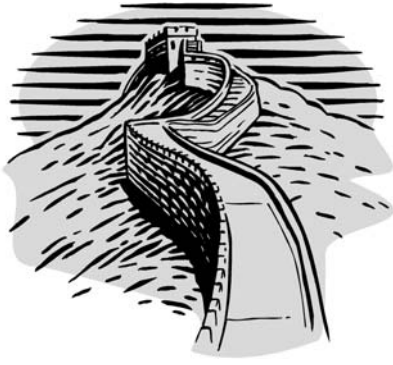

Paste
Tutankham un's
Golden Sarcoph agus
here

This is King Tutankhamun's Golden Sarcoph agus. King Tut's tomb was found in the early 1900's by a treasure hunter named Howard Carter. He found Tut's tomb with all its treasures still there. Many items were covered in gold!

Draw in this Egyptian woman's face, hands and feet.

Travel to Early Cultures

Now you're traveling to several cultures -- India, China, Phoenicia and Africa. Record below what you encountered in your journey.

Your tasks in the East:

Using this outline, create one of the clay soldiers found in Shi Huangdi's tomb.

You can use paper cut-outs or draw.

You can see them on page 167 of "Encyclopedia of World History."

wall

Paste
The Great Wall
here

Can you read the word wall above?
The picture shows the Great Wall of China

Draw pictures of people in the castes in India:

Priests

Noble Warriors

Traders &
Farmers

Servants

Untouchables

Travel to Early Cultures - My Hideaway: Great Wall of China

